MONTGOMERY COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS (MCPS)

Partnering with School Administrators and Student Groups to Promote School Events

Brian T. Livingston

Images from PowerPoint

STRATEGIES AND ACTIONS

- 1. Establish a Shared Framework
  - Form a Committee: Create a planning committee with representatives from MCPS, school administrators, and student groups.
  - Meetings: Schedule monthly meetings to discuss upcoming events, needs, and progress.
  - Communication Channels: Set up dedicated communication channels (e.g., email groups, messaging apps, etc.) for seamless interaction.
- 2. Event Promotion
  - Event Calendar: Develop a comprehensive event calendar accessible to all stakeholders.
  - School Websites and Newsletters: Regularly update school websites and newsletters with event information.
  - Announcements: Include event announcements in daily school broadcasts and bulletins.
- 3. Signage and Banners
  - Design Team: Form design team to create eye-catching banners and posters.
  - Standard Templates: Develop standardized templates for event signage to ensure consistency and professionalism.
  - Print and Digital Signage: Use a combination of printed banners, posters, and digital displays (e.g., electronic boards, projectors, etc.).

STRATEGIES AND ACTIONS (CONTINUES)

- 4. Information Sharing
  - Information Hub: Create an online information hub where all event-related details are centralized.
  - Parent and Community Involvement: Send regular updates to parents and community members through emails and community meetings.
  - Feedback: Establish a feedback system to gather input from stakeholders about events and communication effectiveness.
- 5. Support for Professional and Operational Excellence
  - Training and Workshops: Offer training sessions for student groups on event planning and management.
  - Best Practices: Share best practices for event promotion and signage with school administrators.
  - Resource Allocation: Ensure adequate resources (e.g., budget for materials, access to printing facilities, etc.) are allocated for event promotion.

WHO (STAKEHOLDERS)

- MCPS Teachers
- School Administrators
- Student Groups (Student Government, Clubs, etc.)
- Parents and Guardians

OBJECTIVES

- Promote School Events: Increase awareness and participation in school events.
- Provide Signage and Banners: Ensure high visibility of events through attractive and informative signage.
- Share Information: Streamline communication between school administrators, student groups, and stakeholders.
- Support Professional and Operational Excellence: Foster a culture of collaboration and excellence in school operations.

CONCLUSION

- This plan aims to create a structured and collaborative approach for promoting school events, providing effective signage, and sharing information among stakeholders. By leveraging the strengths of MCPS, school administrators, and student groups, the initiative will support professional and operational excellence within the school community.

Albert Einstein

In the late 1940s, Einstein became a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), seeing the parallels between the treatment of Jews in Germany and Black people in the United States. He corresponded with scholar and activist W.E.B. Du Bois and actor/performer Paul Robeson. Einstein campaigned for civil rights and gave a "message" in a 1946 Lincoln Center speech.

Einstein was very particular about his sleep schedule, claiming he needed 10 hours of sleep per day to function well. His theory of relativity allegedly came to him in a dream about two trains. He also reportedly used electroshock therapy, which was also known to induce order in the brain. He is said to have held objects like a spoon or pencil in his hand while falling asleep. That way, he could wake up before hitting the second stage of sleep—a hypnagogic process believed to boost creativity and capture sleep-inspired ideas.

Although sleep was important to Einstein, socks were not. He was famous for refusing to wear them. According to a letter he wrote to future wife Elsa, he stopped wearing them because he was annoyed by his big toe pushing through the material and creating a hole.

Albert Einstein sticks his tongue out in a famous photo from his birthday party. One of the most recognizable photos of the 20th century shows Einstein sticking out his tongue while leaving his birthday party on March 14, 1951.

According to Discovery.com, Einstein was leaving his party when a swarm of reporters and photographers approached him to smile. Tired from doing so all night, he refused and rebuffed the tongue out at the crowd for a moment before turning away. Photographer Arthur Sasse captured the shot.

Annual Giving Campaign

BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF GREATER WASHINGTON

It just takes one.

One person to change the life of a young person in need.

One person to change the world.

One person at a time.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington provides...

A safe place...for those who may be left alone after school while their parents are working.

Life-enhancing programs...that can open young minds and introduce young people to limitless possibilities.

Opportunities...that allow young people to dream again.

A staff, supported by a dedicated group of volunteers...who show kids how to turn those dreams into a reality through planning, education, and hard work.

Positive role models...to guide our youth in the right direction.

Hope and opportunity...that lead to increased confidence and brighter futures.

Our membership fees are purposely kept low to make our services accessible to everyone.

Your support makes it possible.

At Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington we serve with one purpose: to inspire and enable young people to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens. Concentrating on children from disadvantaged circumstances, we offer a sense of belonging and the tools to make positive choices to each child who comes to one of our clubs.

But we cannot do it alone

We need the support of caring people and leaders like you to help us reach children who need us most.

Join "The CLUB"

Career Development

Provide 12 weeks of career exploration activities that help our youth assess their personal skills and interests, make sound educational decisions and prepare them to enter our nation's ever-changing work force.

$300 (only $25 a month)

Leadership

Support teen members in their commitment to making their neighborhoods stronger and healthier places to live, learn and grow by sponsoring our Keystone Teen Leadership Club Community Service Project.

$600 (only $50 a month)

Unity & Understanding

Support our S.M.A.R.T. Moves (Skills Mastery And Resistance Training) series (scientifically tested and research based) that fosters diversity, acceptance self esteem and respect for others.

$1,200 (only $100 a month)

Betterment

Support our young people throughout the year with programs that focus on self-discovery, self-expression, and self-esteem – by providing experiences they would otherwise not have exposure to were it not for Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington!

$2,400 (only $200 a month)

The Chairman's Club

Prepare tomorrow's leaders by supporting Project Learn – a series of high tech learning activities geared to bridge the digital divide, break the cycle of intergenerational poverty and better the lives of our kids.

With supercar performance, an affordable price tag, and flashy styling, the 2023 Chevrolet Corvette honors the nameplate's decades-old status as an automotive icon—but with a mid-engine twist. The current C8 is the first generation to have its naturally aspirated V-8 engine mounted behind the passenger compartment, which boosts Chevy's halo sports car into the realm of exotic machinery. Its sharp handling and explosive acceleration are a match for sports cars costing tens of thousands more, but it's also comfortable and refined enough to drive cross-country. The C8 is offered as both a convertible and a coupe, and the hardtop model has a roof panel that can be lifted off to allow the sun to shine in. Its cabin is cozy but comfortable, and there's adequate trunk storage for groceries or luggage.

making the Corvette an easy sports car to live with on a daily basis. We're charmed by this perennial 10Best award winner, and we think you will be, too. This year marks the 70th anniversary of the Corvette, and to celebrate, Chevrolet will offer a special commemorative edition. The 70th Anniversary model will be available only on the top-line 3LT trim but can be ordered on both the coupe or convertible body style. Exterior enhancements include special dark-finish aluminum wheels with 70th Anniversary center caps, red brake calipers, and special exterior badging. Choose between White Pearl Metallic or Carbon Flash Metallic paint, with or without Satin Gray or Satin Black racing stripes. Leather upholstery with red stitching and microfiber trim adorns the 70th Anniversary edition's seats, and a set of custom matching luggage is also included. The 70th Anniversary treatment is also available on the high-performance Z06 model, but we review that car separately. Other enhancements for the 2023 model year include new 20-inch wheel designs, optional black tailpipes, new Stealth Aluminum interior trim, and an available Adrenaline Red Dipped

Ice cream comes in an incredible variety of flavors to suit every palate. Classic options include vanilla, chocolate, and strawberry, which are staples in many households. For those who love something richer, there are flavors like chocolate fudge, rocky road, and butter pecan. Fruit lovers can enjoy options such as mango, raspberry, lemon, and cherry. Nutty flavors like pistachio, almond, and walnut also have their fans. More adventurous flavors include mint chocolate chip, cookies and cream, and caramel swirl. There are also exotic and gourmet varieties such as matcha green tea, lavender honey, and salted caramel. Seasonal favorites like pumpkin spice, eggnog, and peppermint often make an appearance during holidays. Additionally, some ice creams are inspired by popular desserts, resulting in flavors like cheesecake, tiramisu, and brownie batter. The world of ice cream is vast, offering endless possibilities for everyone to enjoy.
